

Concept Mapping: Unpacking Bundled Performance Expectations

A concept map is composed of many propositions. A proposition has two concepts connected by a directional line containing a linking phrase. The linking phrase is a description of the relationship between the concepts.

